CNA Endorsement:

Q: I'm a CNA in ___ State and I'm moving to Arizona. How do I transfer my CNA certificate?

A: Go to www.azbn.gov, click on APPLICATIONS & FORMS, click on CNA application by endorsement. Download, print and fill out the application and send it to AzBN with the required fee.

VERIFICATION to Other State:

Q: I hold a certificate/license in Arizona but I'm moving and need a verification sent to the other state. What do I do?

A: The other state should provide a verification request form in which you fill out the top portion and then send it to AzBN with a $50 required fee, and we will send the verification to the requested state within 30 days. Please be aware that most CNA verifications are emailed and not sent by Postal Service, so please don't include any paperwork with your request if it's intended for the state you're moving to because it will not be forwarded.
